

I hope you're soaking up the summer sun and fun!

The Eugene SRTS E-News took June off and this July one will be short and sweet but we'll be back in full force in August as we gear up for the new school year! Be sure and mark your calendars now for October 6th- National Walk + Bike to School Day. We want to make it the biggest and best yet with celebrations building up to the event, a grand city-wide celebration the day of, and loads of energy to carry us through the year!!

Coming up in just two days is an event that is perfect for families as well as anyone wanted to have some fun in the sun along Eugene's great river path system. Come down to the Blackberry Bike Jamboree, Saturday, July 31st, at Maurie Jacobs Park. There will be a family friendly 10-15 mile ride around the neighborhood streets of Eugene as well as a grand celebration of Eugene's Bikulturalism with a Human Powered Stage, music, synchronized bike dancing, bike safety rodeo, tricycle races, competitions, a beer garden and vendors. You can find more information at <http://edu.eugenegears.org/bramble> or join the Facebook Event Page.

Thanks to our sponsors: City of Eugene, GEARs, UO Outdoor Program, point2point Solutions, Oakshire Brewing, and Paul's Bicycle Way of Life.

Coming up in August is another great Kidical Mass ride- the FREE Adaptive Bike & Family Swim ride! It's the last Kidical Mass before school starts so let's make it count! We'll be meeting at the Hilyard Community Center to check out some of their cool adaptive bikes, do a ride around the neighborhood, and then end up back at Amazon pool where we'll get a special early entry into the Rec. swim! Come check out a family tandem, a handcycle, or other interesting adaptive bike- you can even take it for a spin on our ride! Then join us for a special Kidical Mass swim and BBQ! We'll have free and early entry into the Rec Swim (1:30-5:00 p.m.). Register below so we make sure we have enough passes and food.

Thanks to the City of Eugene's Hilyard Community Center and Amazon Pool staff for supporting the ride!
